

“THE MOST COMMITTED WINS”

COMBAT AVIATION ADVISORS

Take the first step in becoming a Combat Aviation
Advisor contact us at:

(850)883-5741

(850)885-6113

711SOS.DOLP.Rec.org@us.af.mil

Duke Field, FL 32542

THE MOST COMMITTED WINS

COMBAT AVIATION ADVISORS (CAA)

Combat Aviation Advisors are Air Commandos responsible for the conduct of special operations activities by, with, and through foreign aviation forces.

MISSION

CAAs are tasked to carry out Foreign Internal Defense (FID), Security Force Assistance (SFA) and unconventional warfare (UW) missions on behalf of USSOCOM.

CAPABILITIES

CAAs are trained in a wide range of specialized skills that they use to carry out SOF Mobility, ISR, Precision Strike and Agile Combat Support. When directed, USSOCOM employs mission-tailored CAA teams (Operational Aviation Detachments) to support combatant commanders' regional objectives.

THEATER ENGAGEMENTS

AFRICOM
CENTCOM
EUCOM
PACOM
SOUTHCOM

TRAINING

Phase I - Advanced Tactical Field-craft
Phase II - CAA Operational Planning
Phase III - Culture & Language Training
Phase IV - AFSC Specific Training

ELIGIBLE AFSCs

11XXX - Pilot
12XXX - Combat System Officer (CSO)
13LXX - Air Liaison Officer (ALO)
14NXX - Intelligence Officer
1A9X1 - Special Mission Aviator (SMA)
1C4X1 - Tactical Air Control Party (TACP)
1NXXX - Intelligence Analyst
1P0X1 - Aircrew Flight Equipment (AFE)
1T0X1 - Survival Evasion Resist & Escape (SERE)
2A5X1 - Airlift Special Mission Aircraft Maintenance (MX)
3P0X1 - Security Forces (SF)
3D1X3 - RF Transmission Systems
3D1X1 - Client Systems
4N0X1C- Independent Duty Medical Technician (IDMT)
48RXX - Residency Trained Flight Surgeon
48GXX - General Medical Officer

COMBAT AVIATION ADVISOR